

UQ-UI Bilateral Research Forum

Partnering for research, exploring solutions to compelling issues facing society, bridging the gap between research and policy

Webinar: Indonesia's Shifting Countering/ Preventing Violent Extremism Policy Landscape and the Implications for Bilateral Security, Law and Justice Engagement.

The University of Queensland (UQ) and the University of Indonesia (UI) are delighted to present the first in a regular series of webinars as part of the UQ-UI Bilateral Research Forum.

Focused on Indonesia's shifting Preventing/Countering Violent Extremism (P/CVE) policy landscape, this webinar is designed to bridge the research to policy gap. It will involve a panel of experts discussing how research is influencing policy formulation with respect to P/CVE in Indonesia.

Date: Thursday, 1 October 2020

AEST time: 1.00pm - 3.00pm

WIB time: 10.00am - 12.00pm

REGISTER

Panel members

Dr Pribadi Sutiono

Assistant Deputy, Asia, Pacific and Africa Bilateral Relations, Coordinating Ministry for Political, Legal and Security Affairs

Ms Dwi Rubiyanti Kholifah

Indonesia Country Director, Asian Muslim Action Network

Professor Winnifred R. Louis
Professor of Psychology, UQ

Dr Mirra Noor Milla

Social Psychologist and Associate Professor, Faculty of Psychology, UI

Mr Susilo Wibisono
Social Researcher, UI