Choose Open Access

Open Access publishing can:

- ✓ Increase the discoverability and readership of your article
- ✓ Make an impact and reach new readers, not just those with easy access to a research library
- ✓ Freely share your work with anyone, anywhere
- ✓ Comply with funding mandates that may be set by your institution, employer or funder
- ✓ Rigorous peer review for every open access article

Select an option

Based on the information you provided at submission, you may be eligible for Open Access funding through an agreement from your organization. This means your article will be free for anyone to read. This typically leads to more citations and downloads.

How would you like to fund Open Access?

- ☒ I'd like to use the Al-Araby Al-Jadeed Open Access agreement
- ☐ I'll pay for Open Access with other funds
- ☐ I do not want to publish Open Access

Confirm who owns your article's copyright

We need to know who owns the copyright of your article so that we can accurately reflect that ownership in your authorship agreement.

Many times, scholars working on original research own the copyright for their written works, but not always. If you produced this article as work-for-hire or as a government employee, for example, you may not own the copyright.

Please tell us about the copyright ownership of your article. ?

- ☒ I own copyright. If I have co-authors, we jointly own copyright and I am acting on our behalf.
- ☐ I am an employee of the UK, Canadian, Australian, or other Commonwealth Realm Government, and the Crown retains and asserts copyright. ?
- ☐ I am a US Government (including NIH) employee and there is no copyright to transfer ?
- ☐ I am a contractor of the US Government (includes NIH contractors) ?
- ☐ I am an employee of the European Commission and copyright is asserted and retained by the European Union. ?
- ☐ I am employed and the copyright belongs to my employer (or is a 'work made for hire'). ?
- ☐ I am an employee of a Government, Agency, or International Organization and copyright is retained by that entity. ?
